HOWE MILITARY SCHOOL

HOWE, INDIANA

Foreword . . .

It seems that there are few cadets who realize the value of Howe's training until they have graduated and are no longer able to take advantage of the opportunity.

Howe represents more than a high-school education; it is an experience which actively teaches leadership, camaraderie, discipline and self-reliance. It teaches lessons outside the Academic Building as valuable as the instructions given within. It is a course in practical psychology finer than those offered in the nation's best universities, and the military organization demands a flexibility which will serve a man well no matter what his career may be. The lessons of Howe place her sons far ahead of their contemporaries unarmed with this background.

For these reasons, we, the Class of 1964 challenge all you who follow us to make the best of your opportunities, to be mature enough to grasp what comes within your scope and to claim the honor which belongs to Howe and can be yours for the taking.

THE CLASS OF 1964

Dedication . . .

In the years that Reginald Mallett has served as Bishop of Northern Indiana and as Chairman of the Howe Board of Trustees, he has earned the admiration of generations of cadets for being more than a Churchman. His warm sincerity, dignity, and sense of humor are loved by all of us, and we regard his retirement as a loss.

It is our honor to dedicate this yearbook as our greatest gift to a great man.

THE RT. REV. REGINALD MALLETT, D.D., S.T.D.

L'Envoi . . .

Alexander the Great was a student of the famous Greek philosopher, Aristotle. One day the tutor and his student were busy working mathematical problems which required long and tedious calculations. Alexander, who gained a reputation for his impatience, exclaimed: "Why must I go through all these little steps? Why can't I get the answer immediately? I'm the future king!"

"There is no royal road to knowledge," the tutor replied. In just seven words, Aristotle's summation expressed the basic qualities of education: work and desire. As Seniors we can attest to the veracity of his statement. We know that there is no "royal road," yet most of us realize that the educational process which we have been exposed to at Howe has taught us to work and reap the fruits of our desires. It has made the road of knowledge a little smoother and easier to follow. The hardest part of our education, however, is yet to come. With this Commencement our knowledge of what we have learned will be put to the most severe and unfaltering tests. How well we have prepared ourselves for the challenges that lie ahead, will determine whether we will be the Alexanders who will reign over the world or the failures who never will understand the virtues of learning. After all, the word commencement means the beginning and by no means the end of education.

As a final thought, we Seniors must realize that we are taking a large part of Howe with us, and a very valuable part. In return, let us leave a little part of ourselves here—just enough to contain our gratitude.

Fourth row: Tubbs, Breneman, Schmidt, Jordan, Hoopes, Klare, Mathivet, Hunt, Gieringer, Ranson, Quinlan J, Quinlan P, Nutt Russell RA.

Although the Class of 1965 has not yet proved itself, it is certainly regarded as a capable group. Serving as officers of the new Senior class are: Steve Steele, president; George DeMet, vice-president; John McNeil, secretary; Scott Olson, treasurer; and Jeff Yoder, Sergeant-at-Arms. Mr. Allan F. Gates assisted as faculty adviser.

It will not be long before the members of this class will be bearing the responsibility of leadership. We are convinced that they will uphold the honor and reputation of Howe.

Sophomores

First row: Prout, Itriago, Woodin, Walters, Fairchild, Yglesias, Saunders, Cummins, Peirce, Brockmann,

SIXTH GRADE

Second row: Marsh, Bridges, Jensen BJ, Stout, Walker JD, Moore.

The school year 1963-1964 was a superior one for the 76 members of "E" Company of the Lower School Cadet Corps. Cooperation and enthusiasm were high as well as a consistently fine appearance of personals and barracks. Special commendations were awarded "E" Company as well as the Cavaliers and Drum and Bugle Corps by the visiting Government Inspection group.

Cadet Captain Shriner, D.D., did a fine job as Company Commander of "E" Company. His Company Staff was 1st Lt. Bass, Executive Officer and First Sergeant Kapson, Platoon Leaders were 2nd Lt. Jensen, P.J., and 2nd Lt. Gillespie; M/Sgt. Brandt and M/Sgt. Shriner, T.W. served as Platoon Sergeants.

Major Robert Strawbridge, Commandant of the Lower School was ably assisted by Senior Cadet 1st Lt. Vail, E.A. of the Battalion Staff.

CHAPEL

In Memoriam

Earl Thomas Jennings
Priest

Who devoted his life to the service of God, of His Church, his country and his school.

The Choir

Second row: Genova (Choir Commander), Hamilton, Kap'an, Illingworth, Bridges, Tomlinson DC, Stout, Grumme RH, Wilkie, Austin, Ditzler (Choir Commander);

Third row: Mr. Boner (Choirmaster), Olson (Trumpeter), Penpraze (Trumpeter), Shambaugh, Badgley (Trumpeter), Heinemann, Van Tassel, Boyer, Bogedain, Fox;

Fourth row: Rugar, Jennings PW, Calhoun, Dempsey, Reid, Burke;

Not shown: Slater.

The Chapel Choir this year had a membership of 36 boys, seventeen from Lower School and nineteen from Upper School. It provided music for the Sunday celebration of the Holy Eucharist as well as leadership for daily chapel hymn singing. Drawing from the works of some of the Church's greatest composers, the choir also performed special Anthems on numerous Sundays throughout the year, including Founders' Day, Thanksgiving, Confirmation, Mother's Day, and Commencement.

As in previous years, the choir performed music for the Boar's Head Procession at Christmas, and sang at Trinity Episcopal Church, Fort Wayne, on their annual Howe day, the Sunday after Easter. Also, a selected group from the choir attended the annual May concert by the St. Luke's Choristers of Kalamazoo.

A notable feature of this year's chapel music program was the work of the choir's trumpet trio. Performing music composed especially for the group by Mr. Sidney Boner, Howe's organist and choirmaster, the trumpeters' fanfares and descants on famous hymns provided on special occasions a brilliant accompaniment to the hymn singing.

Mrs. Daniel Hauck was an efficient and tireless choir mother, who insured that the choir was appropriately vested.

Indirectly connected with the music program of All Saints' Chapel is the annual series of spring organ recitals. The series was begun in 1962 shortly after the completion of the school's new organ, built by Robert Noehren, Ann Arbor, Michigan. This year's recitalists were Edward Tibbs, Elizabeth Paul, Frank Kuhlmann, and Mr. Boner.

The Acolytes

Second row: Washington, Ranson, Hoopes, Jordan, Shelton, Hunt, Bachand, Wade FC.

The highest privilege any cadet who is a communicant of the Church enjoys at Howe is that of serving at the altars of the school.

This year a large group of Lower and Upper Schoolers, after thorough and intensive training, has taken its place in the regular schedule of services and activities of the chapel and has served faithfully and well under the leadership of James Webster, Head Acolyte. James Hughes has been a faithful and efficient Sacristan.

When a server has reached the proper age and is able to meet the other requirements, he is inducted into the Order of St. Vincent, national guild for acolytes, which is affiliated with other groups of servers throughout the Anglican Communion. He thus becomes a member of a world-wide fellowship.

Howe acolytes have the reputation of being among the finest servers to be found anywhere in the church.

Second row: Morton, Dibble, Reed JH, McMullen, Montgomery, Pape.

LOWER SCHOOL ACOLYTES

First row: Conrad, Millies, Shriner DD, Goldsmith, Gray, Grumme RH, Smalis;
Second row: Smith, Walker JC, Brandt, Shriner TW, Leininger, Gillespie, Olsen, Lambert.

These Seniors are acolytes who have served faithfully and well at the altars of the school. They will be greatly missed next year.

Third row: Shelton, Hughes, Webster.

Confirmation Class

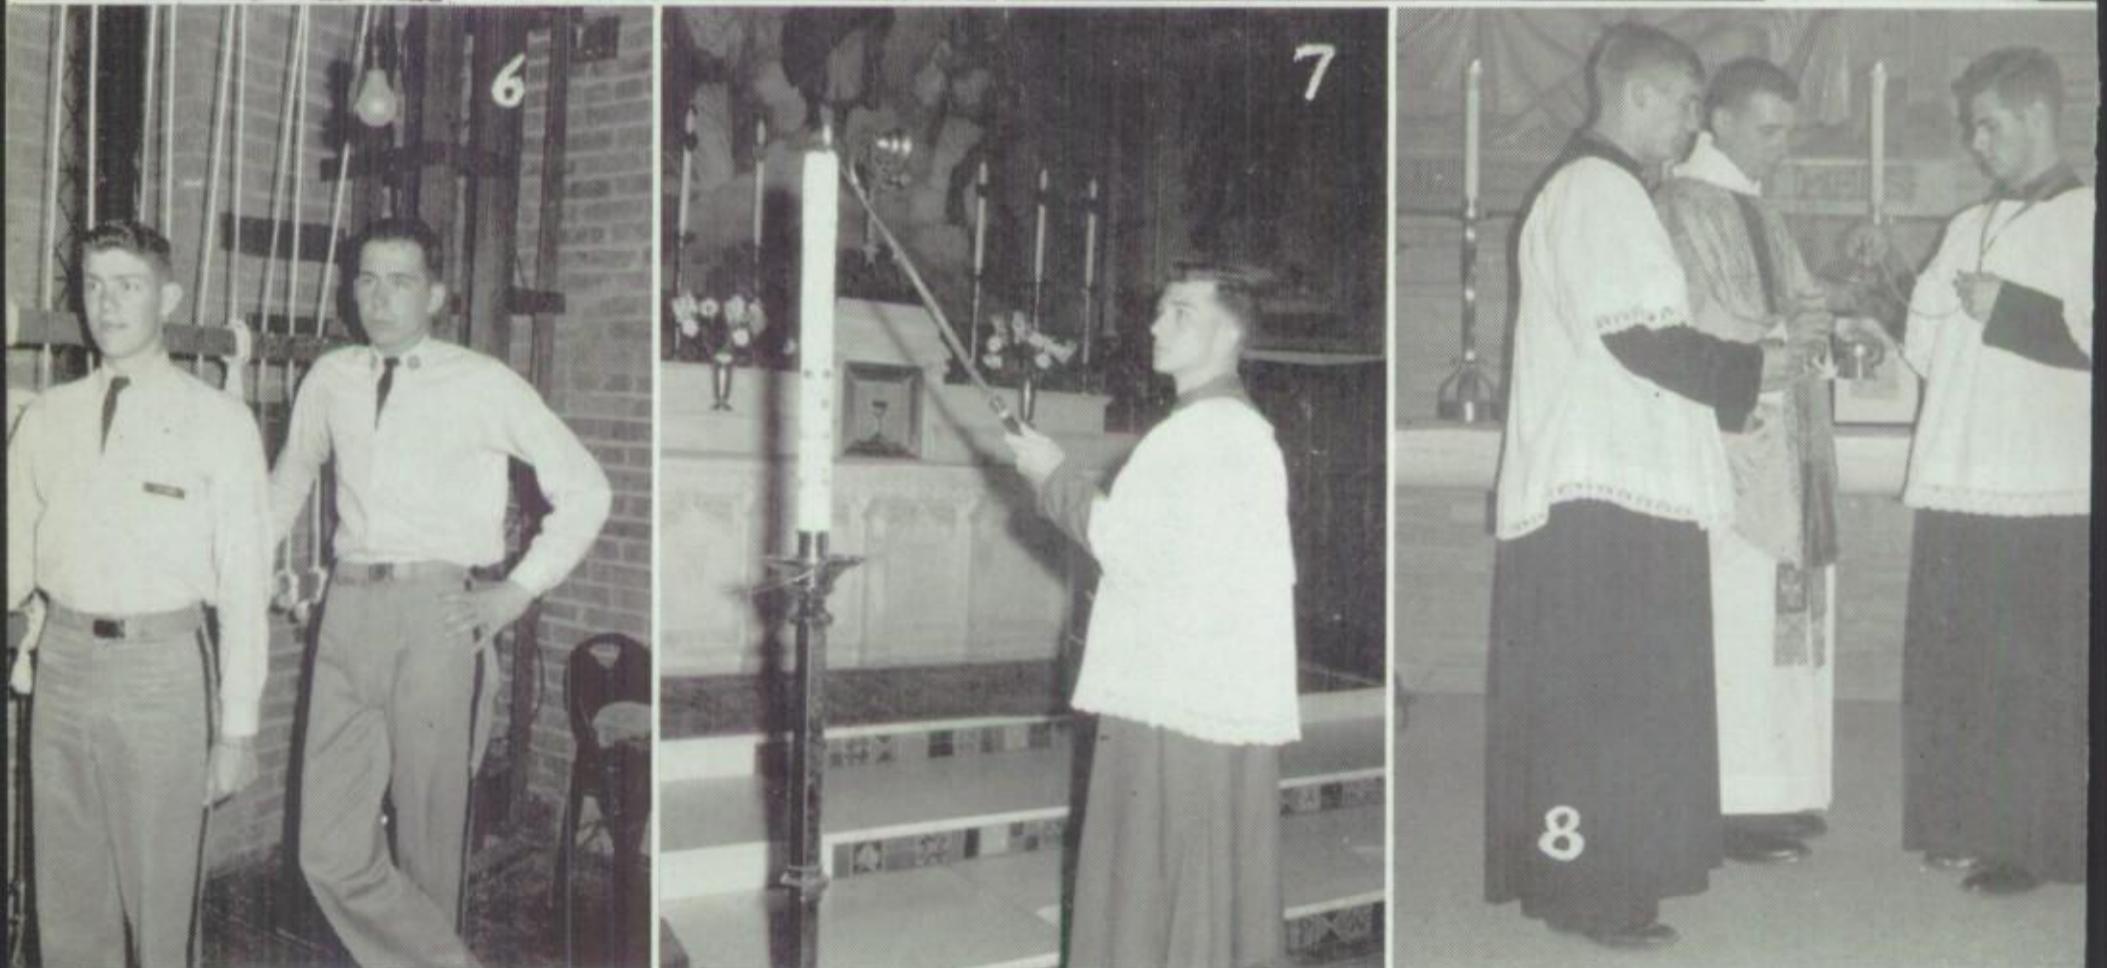

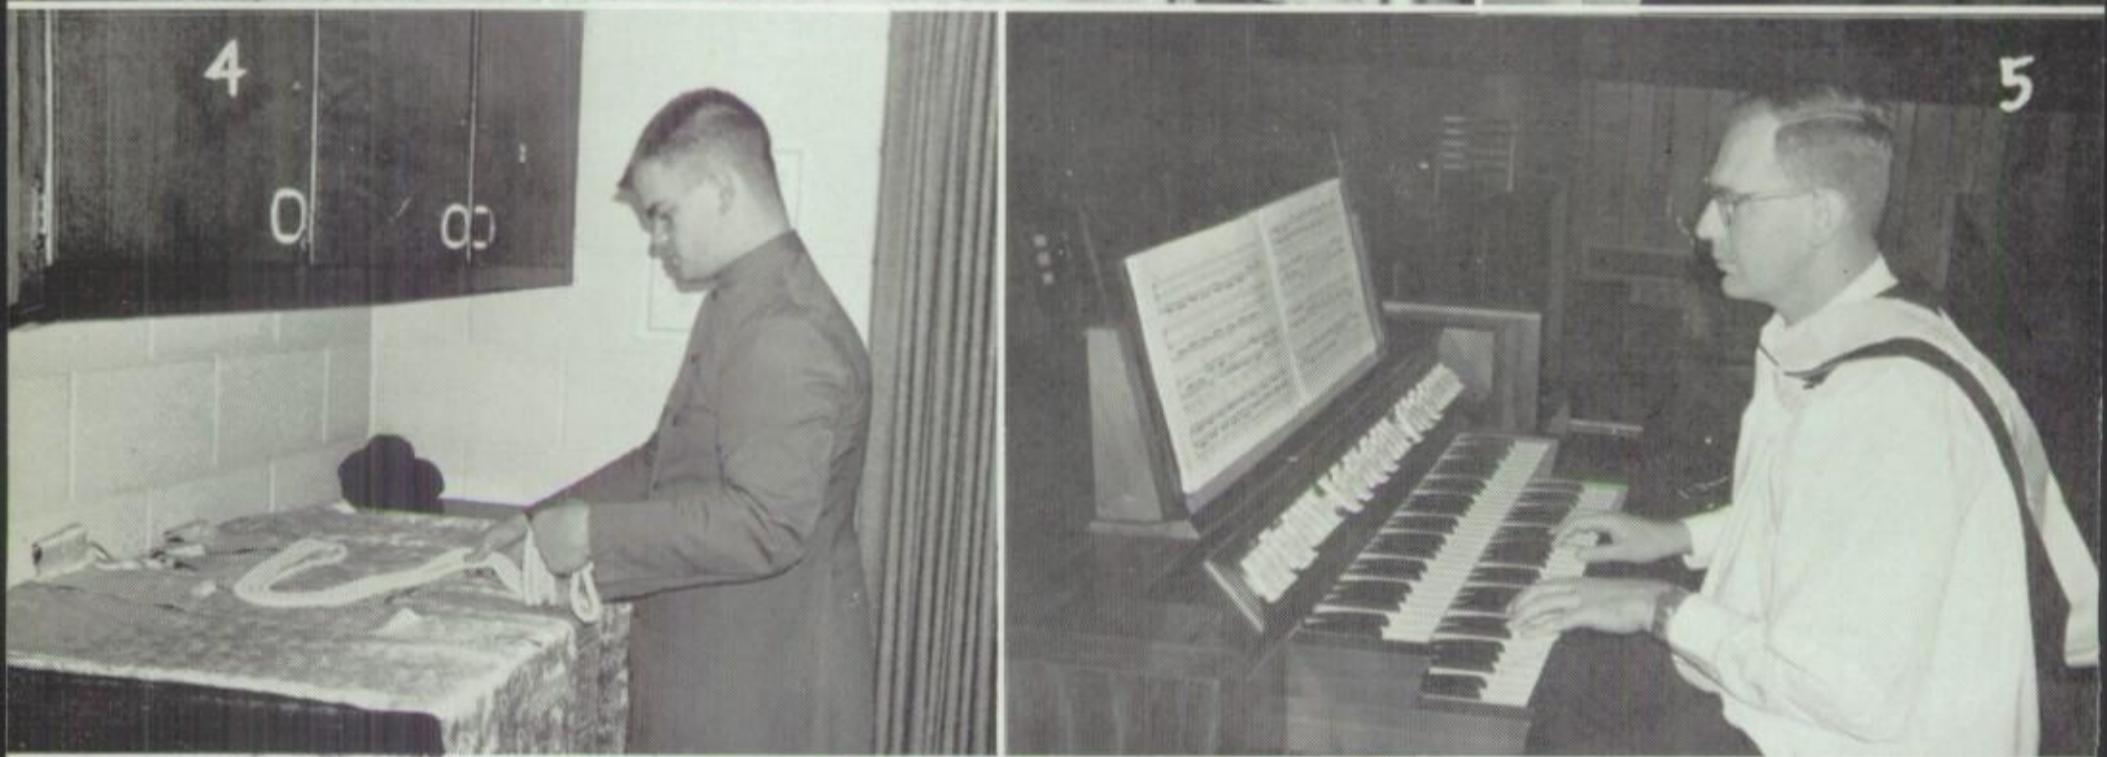

Kneeling (left to right): Rosselott, Morrow, Illingworth, Jenkins, Merchant, Potter;
First row (standing): Hill, Kowalk, White, Sherwood M, Webster, Bishop Klein, Bouton, Walker JD, Tomlinson, Whitmer, Dawson;
Second row: Henderson J, Calhoun, Ditzler, Nobles, Sigrist, Heinisch, Pierce TJ, Cook FC, Saunders, Pearse, Van Tassel.

One of the largest confirmation classes in recent years was presented to the Rt. Rev. Walter C. Klein, D.D., Bishop of Northern Indiana and was Confirmed by him on March 15 in All Saints' Chapel.

Upper Schoolers received their instruction from Fr. Murphy and Lower Schoolers from Fr. Bowling. Through Confirmation these boys become communicant members of the Episcopal Church and are being transferred to their home parishes. A Corporate Communion was held the week of their Confirmation when all received their First Communions.

Members of the class have received instruction in serving the altar and have taken their places as servers at the altars of the school.

(1) The Rev. Robert J. Murphy, D.D., Chaplain; (2) The Rt. Rev. Walter C. Klein, Ph.D., Th.D., Bishop of Northern Indiana; (3) The Rev. Dom Patrick, O.S.B., special preacher at All Saints' Chapel; (4) Cadet James Hughes, sacristan; (5) Mr. Sidney Boner, organist and choirmaster; (6) Cadets Bachand and Turetzky, ringers of the bell and chimes; (7) Cadet James Webster, Head Acolyte; (8) The Rev. Jack Bowling, Assistant Chaplain, with acolytes.

The Band

"Versatility" is probably the one word that best describes this year's marching band. In addition to providing the music for parades, the band formed a part of the Honor Guard for visiting dignitaries and played at Howe's major athletic events.

General opinion seems to indicate that the band has proved to be the finest Howe has seen in quite some time, and its constant rapid improvement would predict a greater excellence in future years.

ORGANIZATIONS

Sword and Shield

Standing (left to right): Maj. Devanny, Col. Woods, Mr. Kelly, Col. Bouton, Fr. Murphy;
Left side (front to rear): Swan, Stentz, Brangan, Fisher, Chatain J., Gossinger, Best, Bouton, Muir;
(rear) Hughes, Nobles, Johanson;
Right side: Huxtable, Bawden, Beaman, Howland, Crippen, Henry, Washington, Poll;
(rear) Vail, Sherrin, Streicher.

The Sword and Shield takes the place of a Student Council on the Howe campus. It is composed of all cadet commissioned officers and includes the Superintendent, the Professor of Military Science, the Headmaster, the Commandant, and the Chaplain.

In bi-weekly meetings the affairs of the school are discussed and cadets present ideas to the Administration. In this way it serves as a valuable link between the Corps of Cadets and the school staff.

Chairman of the 1963-64 group was Cadet Major William T. Muir who was aided by its Secretary Cadet Michael W. Bouton.

Non-Commissioned Officers Club

The Non-Commissioned Officers Club, formed on the same basis as the Sword and Shield Club, functioned efficiently again this year, as in years past. The N. C. O. Club acted as a go-between for both the administration and the Cadet Corps. The Club also maintained and expanded the war museum in the Administration Building. The war museum is a relatively new project, being started only a few years ago, but with the help of this year's N.C.O.'s, it continued to grow.

The Non-Coms Club is composed of all the first sergeants and platoon sergeants of the Upper School. Meetings were held bi-monthly and as a result of several of these meetings, a Sunday Parade Program was published for the benefit of guests who view these ceremonies.

The club officers were as follows: President, Cadet M/Sgt. Charles D. Burger; Vice-President, Cadet M/Sgt. Joseph L. Willmeng; Secretary, Cadet 1/Sgt. William F. Bachand; Chairman of the Standing Committee, Cadet M/Sgt. Thomas J. Pierce; Chairman of the Museum Committee, Cadet /Sgt. Paul R. Ballantine; Faculty Adviser, Major Earl H. Devanny, Jr.

Cum Laude

Second row: Mr. Tucker, Smith PG, Haas, Gossinger, Rossell, Bouton, Col. Bouton;
Third row: Mr. Glenn, Mr. Slater, Mrs. Downs, Mrs. Slater, Mrs. Kelly, Mr. Merrell, Mr. Tingley.

Election to Cum Laude Society recognizes the academic accomplishments of outstanding Seniors. To be eligible for admission to Cum Laude, one must have an average of at least 3.25 for seven semesters. In addition to this scholastic requirement, a cadet must exhibit leadership and good citizenship.

The Class of 1964 has contributed to the continuing advance of academic achievement at Howe. This year's group to be admitted to Cum Laude is the largest group in the history of the school and is made up of the top ten members of the Senior class. Cadets who will be so honored are William Bachand, Michael Bouton, Jacques Chatain, Herbert Crippen, Gary Gossinger, Fred Haas, Toby Muir, Alan Rossell, Paul Smith, and Erick Vail.

To encourage higher scholastic achievement at Howe, a plaque will be placed in the academic building listing each year's members of the society. This will serve to honor those who have done outstanding work and to inspire others to strive for similar honors.

Alpha Delta Tau

Second row: Rossell, Stentz, Haas, Carver, McIntosh, Dibble, Wise;
Third row: McNeil, Chatain S, Smith PG, Wanke, Vail, Steel, Crippen, Taschner.
Fourth row: Ostberg, Masterone, DeMet, Daugherty, Israel, Day, Thomas.

Howe's Upper School scholastic honor society, the Alpha Delta Tau, again served as the goal of academic accomplishment for cadets in all grades. The ADT differs from the other two honor societies on campus in that it is a local society and is open to cadets in all grades in Upper School.

To gain admittance to the society, initiates must fulfill three basic requirements for three consecutive six-week periods: an academic average of at least 3.25 with no C's, and A in conduct, and satisfactory military grades. Upon meeting the rigid standards, the cadet is able to enjoy special privileges such as freedom to study where and when he wishes, to leave early on earned weekend leaves, and to eat in the canteen or in town on Saturday nights. A member must continue to keep his grade average comparable to that required for admission in order to retain membership in the society.

Due to the increase in scholastic achievement at Howe, there has also been an increase in the number of members and initiates in the ADT. This year's group is one of the largest ever to be seen at Howe.

Serving as officers for the ADT this year are Herb Crippen as president; Jacques Chatain as vice-president; Gary Gossinger as secretary, and Paul Smith as treasurer. Encouraging diligent study habits and a scholarly attitude, Mr. Raymond R. Kelly, Howe's Headmaster, again served as the group's faculty advisor.

National Honor Society

Second row: Smith PG, Wanke, Rossell, Stentz, Vail, Larsen, Crippen;
Third row: McNeil, Ostberg, Masterone, Chatain J, DeMet, Steel, Mr. Kelly.

The National Honor Society was founded in 1927 by the Council of Secondary School Principals for the purpose of recognizing persons with high scholastic achievement. The Howe chapter was instituted in 1963, and has already initiated several campus projects, one of which is to offer special help to students with academic problems in various subjects. In addition, the organization has sponsored medals to be offered at the end of the year for the best Freshman and Sophomore essay.

Michael W. Bouton headed this year's group and working with him were: Herbert O. Crippen, Vice-President; William T. Muir, Secretary; and Erick A. Vail, Treasurer. Mr. Raymond R. Kelly, the Headmaster, assisted the group as faculty adviser.

Quill and Scroll

Each year, writers who show exceptional merit in journalism are nominated to the national society, the Quill and Scroll. Although this society has no particular function as a group on campus, membership in this elite organization is an honor in that it affords national recognition.

For the first time, Howe has formed a journalism class this year. Those nominated for membership in Quill and Scroll do not necessarily have to be in this class, but must write extensively and exceptionally for the Howe Herald. Unlike other campus honor societies, Quill and Scroll honors cadets in an extra-curricular activity. Contrary to many persons' opinions, writing for the Herald is not an easy job. On the contrary, it requires a great deal of one's time and energy.

Present members on campus include the Rev. Robert J. Murphy, Chaplain and adviser to the Tatler staff; Mr. Allan F. Gates, Herald staff adviser; and Cadet William F. Bachand, Editor-in-Chief of the Herald. Nominees, who will be inducted into the society at Commencement, are Herbert C. Crippen, Gary T. Gossinger, James H. Heinisch, Alan J. Rossell, and Paul G. Smith.

Beta Lambda Sigma

Standing: Mr. Haas, Starks, Olsen, White, Leininger, Bass, Lewis, Mr. Worrall, Mr. Merrell.

Indicative of the interest in superior academic accomplishment is the fact that Beta Lambda Sigma, the Lower School honor society, numbers one of the largest groups of cadets in its history.

Beta Lambda Sigma is the Lower School equivalent of Alpha Delta Tau in the Upper School. Its purpose is to promote and recognize superior academic work. An average of no less than "B" and three "A's" with an "A" in conduct for the entire year is required for membership.

Upon graduation from the Lower, many members of Beta Lambda Sigma go on to earn membership in the Upper School's Alpha Delta Tau.

National Forensic League

Howe's chapter of the National Forensic League is the largest honorary organization on campus. Boasting a total of 73 members, the speech team inducted 32 new members this year. Howe produced one state champion and several finalists in the two state meets, the NFL and the IHSFA. In the Indiana High School Forensic Association's final, Steve Friedman took a first in humorous interpretation. Others placing were Jim Webster, seventh in dramatic interpretation; Jack Ranson, ninth in dramatic interpretation; and Bob Best, a tie with Ranson. In the National Forensic League's finals, Ranson placed third and Friedman fourth.

Robert Best won the most coveted of speech awards, the Degree of Distinction. Fourteen cadets now hold the Degree of Excellence, the second highest honor. Glenn Bartholic, Bob Best, Steve Friedman, Gary Gossinger, Fred Hass, Scott Huxtable, Dean Koulouras, Pete Mardirosian, John McNeil, Jack Ranson, Steve Steele, and Ken Washington have earned the required 150 points for the Degree of Excellence.

As a unit, Howe's chapter of NFL did well. They won the NFL traveling Sweepstakes Trophy, symbolic of having spoken in the most rounds during the year. The purpose of the NFL is to teach one to express one's ideas clearly, concisely, and forcefully in all situations.

Serving as officers this year were Robert Best as president, Scott Huxtable as vice-president, Gary Gossinger as secretary, and Fred Haas as treasurer. Mr. Lester M. Tucker again served as coach and adviser to the group.

Debate

Second row: Bawden, McNeil, Taylor, Steel, Masterone, Day, Zimmerman.

1963-1964 recorded the largest debate team in ten years at Howe. Returning Varsity debaters, who must be able to defend both the pro and con of an issue, were the two teams of Glenn Bartholic-Bill Bawden and Steve Steele-John McNeil.

This year, great depth to the team was added by the acquisition of several individual teams who were able to substitute when called upon. Only one man on this year's team will be lost through graduation, leaving the team relatively intact for next year.

This year's resolution was, "Resolved, that the United States of America should provide complete medical care for all citizens at public expense." Although slanted toward the negative, it proved to be quite advantageous to Howe's affirmative side.

Members of the debate team were active in the National Forensic League, the Indiana High School Forensic Association and the St. Joseph Valley League of South Bend.

This year's won-loss record was slightly under fifty per cent, a substantial improvement over previous years. The climax of the season was the winning of a seat in the sectional debate tournament by Steve Steele and John McNeil.

Indiana's highways saw plenty of the cadets this year as they traveled about 2500 miles to the cities of Fort Wayne, Elkhart, South Bend, Hammond, Gary, Lafayette, and North Manchester, among others.

National Thespians

Second row: Koulouras, Tomlinson, Lennie, Gossinger, Badgley, Mardirosian, Yoder, Taylor, Luck, Flory, Webster, Mr. Terry Tucker, Ranson;

Third row: Bachand, Streicher, Fairfield, Best, Mueller, Woolf, Heinisch, Turetzky, Ditzler, Sprague, Holmes.

The National Thespian Society is a nation-wide organization devoted to the advancement of the dramatic arts in secondary schools. The requirements for membership in the society are rigid. A student must participate in several plays and earn a total of ten points before he can become eligible for membership.

This year, under the direction of Mr. Terry Tucker, the Howe chapter presented a varied playbill. The troupe got off to a roaring start in December when it presented "Blood, Sweat, and Stanley Poole," a three-act comedy depicting the unfortunate mis-haps which invariably occur on an Army post. The stars of the play, Jim Mueller, Fred Slater, and Bill Bachand, did an excellent job.

Late in March, the troupe presented two one-act dramas. "The Kingdom of the Mind" concerned itself with a man who was condemned to death for murder, but who actually did not commit the crime. He was overcome by an obsession to die. "One Day in the Life of Ivan Denisovitch" is a play based on the Russian novel of the same name by Alexander Solzenetsyn. The setting of this play is in a Russian work camp. The plot of the play revolves around the prisoners of the camp and their attempt to make an escape.

On Mother's Day weekend, the troupe presented another comedy which proved to be as successful with the corps as did the fall presentation. "Corporal's Punishment" concerned an Army corporal who fell in love with a WAC sergeant. However, the WAC would not marry beneath her rank.

The Howe Herald

Standing: Friedman, Mardirosian, Crippen, Mr. Gates, Chatain S, Cook H, Rossell, Taylor;

For the first time this year, the Upper School offered a journalism course. The cadets enrolled in the course served as the nucleus of this year's Herald staff. The journalism class facilitated the ease of production of the paper in that it brought the essence of the staff together. More work was distributed to fewer people than in years past.

Once again, the Herald captured First Class Honors in the National Scholastic Press Association judging. This is an ultimate tribute to the work of staff members who spent much time in preparing and writing news, feature, and sports stories. It is especially notable that this year's staff scored well over 100 points better than last year's.

William F. Bachand served as Editor-in-Chief of this year's staff while others on the Editorial Board included Gary T. Gossinger, Editorials; James H. Heinisch, Sports; and Fred A. Friedman, Photos. Mr. Allan F. Gates again served ably as faculty adviser.

This year, as in years past, the Herald may nominate five of its writers for the distinction of becoming members of Quill and Scroll, the National Honor Society of High School Journalists. The only hold-over member from last year was William F. Bachand. New nominees include Herbert O. Crippen, Gary T. Gossinger, James H. Heinisch, Alan J. Rossell, and Paul G. Smith.

Lower Herald Staff

These four eighth graders have faithfully reported the newsworthy events of the Lower School throughout the year. Tod Leininger and Bob Bass have covered the athletic events while Joe Brilando and Paul Jensen have covered the academic, military and extra-curricular activities.

Many cadets who have served as Lower School reporters have, through the years, gone on to seek places on the Upper School Herald staff.

Old Guard - Cadets

First row: May, Mardirosian, Koehler, Taylor, Chmelir, Hughes, Morton, Penpraze, Kinsley, Bartholic, Russell, Wade AG, Spencer, Cassidy;
Second row: Webster, Butner, Steel, Pffleiderer, Mueller, Tomlinson D, Grumme J, Ditzler, Nobles, Gossinger, Barnett, Muir, Howland, Swan;
Third row: Bachand, Hoopes, Nutt, Wade F, McNeil, Tubbs, Kalenda, Keiser, Swartwood, Hallas, Kramer, Lovegrove, Ballantine, Poll.

The Old Guard is the senior service organization on campus to which all cadets and faculty members who have resided at Howe for four years or more belong. Under the direction of Mr. John A. Pagin the Old Guard has contributed much to the life of the school. At present, the Guard is undertaking the development of the Howard W. Downs Memorial Park.

In addition to planting many trees on campus the group has also done much to improve the facilities of the Bouton Auditorium this year. The Old Guard, as is its custom, sponsored the presentation of the Boar's Head dinner before the Christmas holidays.

Michael W. Bouton commanded the Old Guard this year with the assistance of vice-commander Robert B. Best. Herbert O. Crippen served as secretary and Frederick R. Haas was treasurer.

At the annual initiation and dinner John McNeil was elected commander for the 1964-65 school year and Steve Steele was chosen vice-commander. Don Tomlinson will act as secretary and Ben Hoopes will be the new treasurer.

Old Guard - Faculty

Many members of the Howe faculty are also members of the Old Guard having been in residence at Howe for four years or more.

The fact that so many faculty members remain at their posts over a considerable period of time insures the continuity and stability of the academic work which is so important in the life of the school.

Second row: Mr. James, Mr. Hauck, Mr. Gates, Mr. Wenzel, Mr. Pagin, Mr. Glenn, Mr. Lester Tucker, Mr. Haas, Mr. Worrall
Third row: Maj. Devanny, Col. Little, Mr. Van Zuijen, Mr. Kelly, Maj. Strawbridge, Capt. Cowles.

Varsity "H" Club

The VHC is one of the most active organizations on the Howe Campus, and as usual it offered its full support to all phases of the athletic program this year. In addition to sponsoring the annual All Lettermen's Banquet, providing programs at football games, and operating the concession stand at basketball games, the club continued its program of honoring outstanding Howe teams with color photographs hung in the front of the gymnasium.

Richard W. Poll headed the 1963-64 VHC with Michael W. Bouton serving as Vice-President and William T. Muir as Secretary. Robert B. Best was Treasurer and James K. Webster was the Sergeant-at-Arms. Mr. Carl B. Tingley aids the Varsity "H" Club as Faculty Adviser.

First row: Jackson, Willmeng W, Root, Ochs, Willmeng J, Dayton, Brown T, Dibble, Lovegrove, Curry;
Second row: Larsen P, Olsen, Howland, Washington, Cassidy, Sherrin, Mitchell T, Keiser, Daugherty;
Third row: Shelton, Steel, Jordan, Ostberg, Stewart, Henry, Vander Laan, Gieringer, Ranson, Swan;
Fourth row: Fitzgerald, Bachand, Hoopes, Fox, Tubbs.

Glee Club

First row (left to right): Bachand, Taschner, Gossinger, Koehler, Yoder, Taylor TS, Decker, McIntosh, Nobles, Penpraze, Mr. Figert;
Second row: Williamson, Olson, Hughes, Badgley, Smith, Turetzky, Ditzler, Kleinschmidt, Daugerty; Accompanist: Posnik.

The 1964 Corpsmen was a group of 22 vocalists, all with one thing in common — a love for singing. Over half of the Glee Club was composed of returning members. The remaining half was screened from over 40 tryouts.

This year's group, acclaimed by faculty, cadets, and friends of the school to be the best ever, traveled throughout the Midwest to sing at various alumni dinners in Indianapolis, Cleveland, Chicago, and Detroit. In addition, the Glee Club performed at the Boar's Head dinner before Christmas, at the Old Guard and Lower School dinners, and at the Miss Sturgis Pageant in Sturgis.

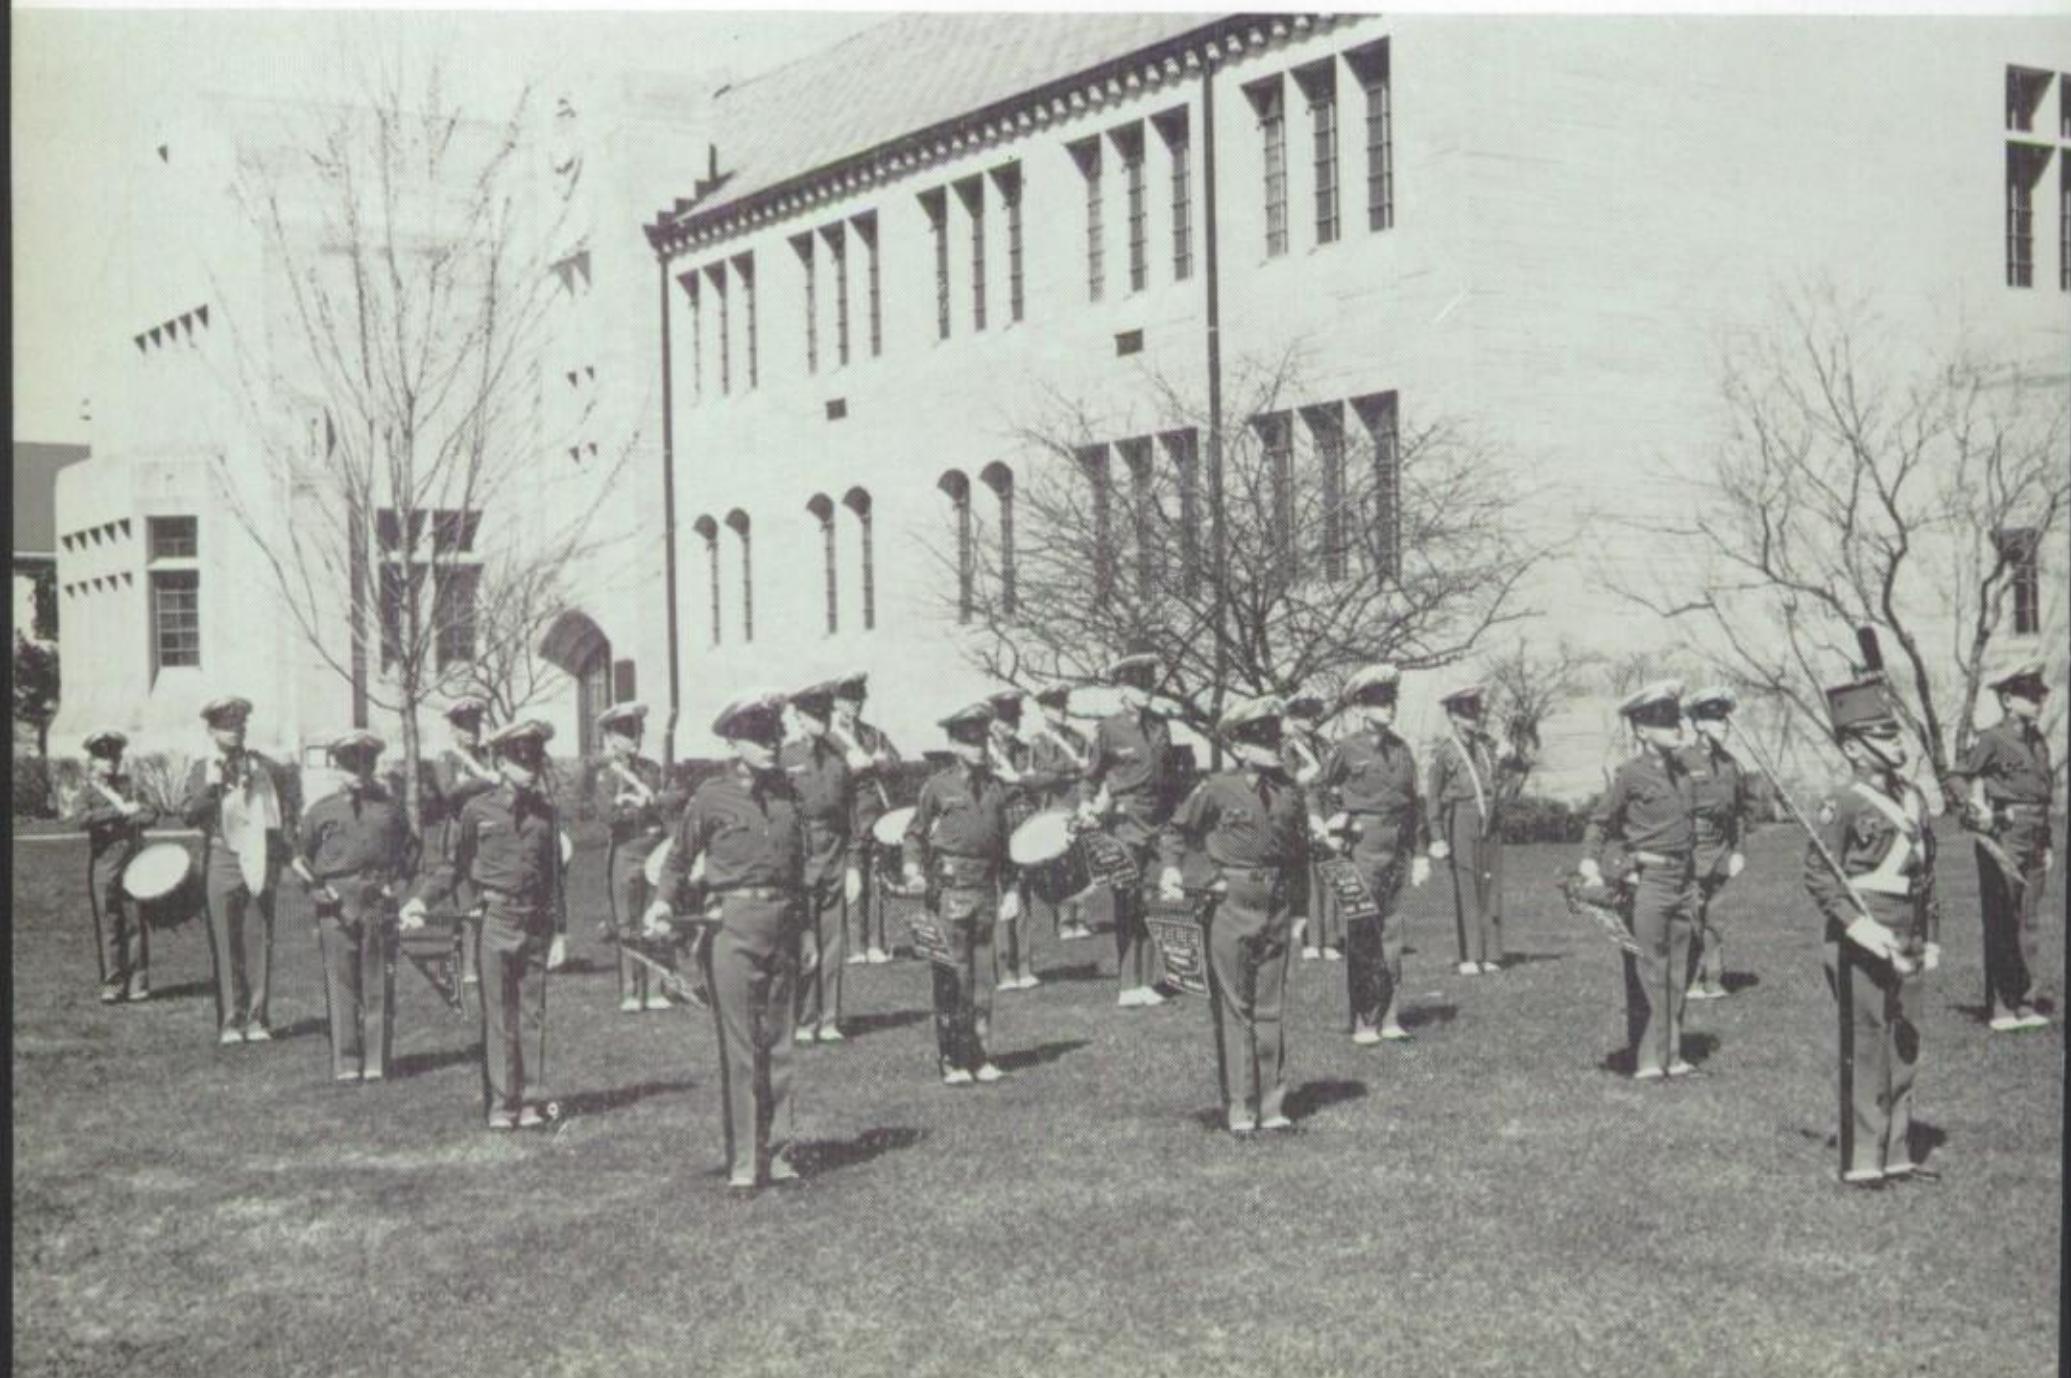

This year's soloist was Herb Williamson, a fine folk-singing baritone. Most of the Glee Club will be returning next year but through graduation the club will be hampered by the loss of five outstanding singers.

Drum and Bugle Corps

The roar of drums and the blare of bugles was a familiar sound around the Lower School again this year. This select group of twenty-one White Hallers was the most active group of its kind in the history of the corps. From late in September, when they made their initial appearance in LaGrange parade, through Commencement weekend, the D. and B., as they are called, pounded and puffed their way through miles and miles of practice, parades, and performances. In addition to the traditional routines for Founders' Day and Mother's Day for the parents, and Government Inspection for the Military, the D. & B. entertained the sports fans at several home football and basketball games and represented Howe School in several parades in nearby communities.

Those cadets who are honored to wear the bright red braid of the Drum and Bugle Corps are chosen by tryout from the many volunteers each fall. The appearance of the group was further enhanced with the addition of new white spats to the uniform for parade purposes. Many hours of rehearsal and drill are needed to develop the intricate marching routines used by the Corps. They were ably led in these performances by Cadet Joseph Auerbach, the drum major this year.

Since its beginning just ten years ago, the Drum and Bugle Corps has established itself as one of the favorite extra-curricular activities at the Lower School, and also a popular favorite in its many public appearances.

Concert Band

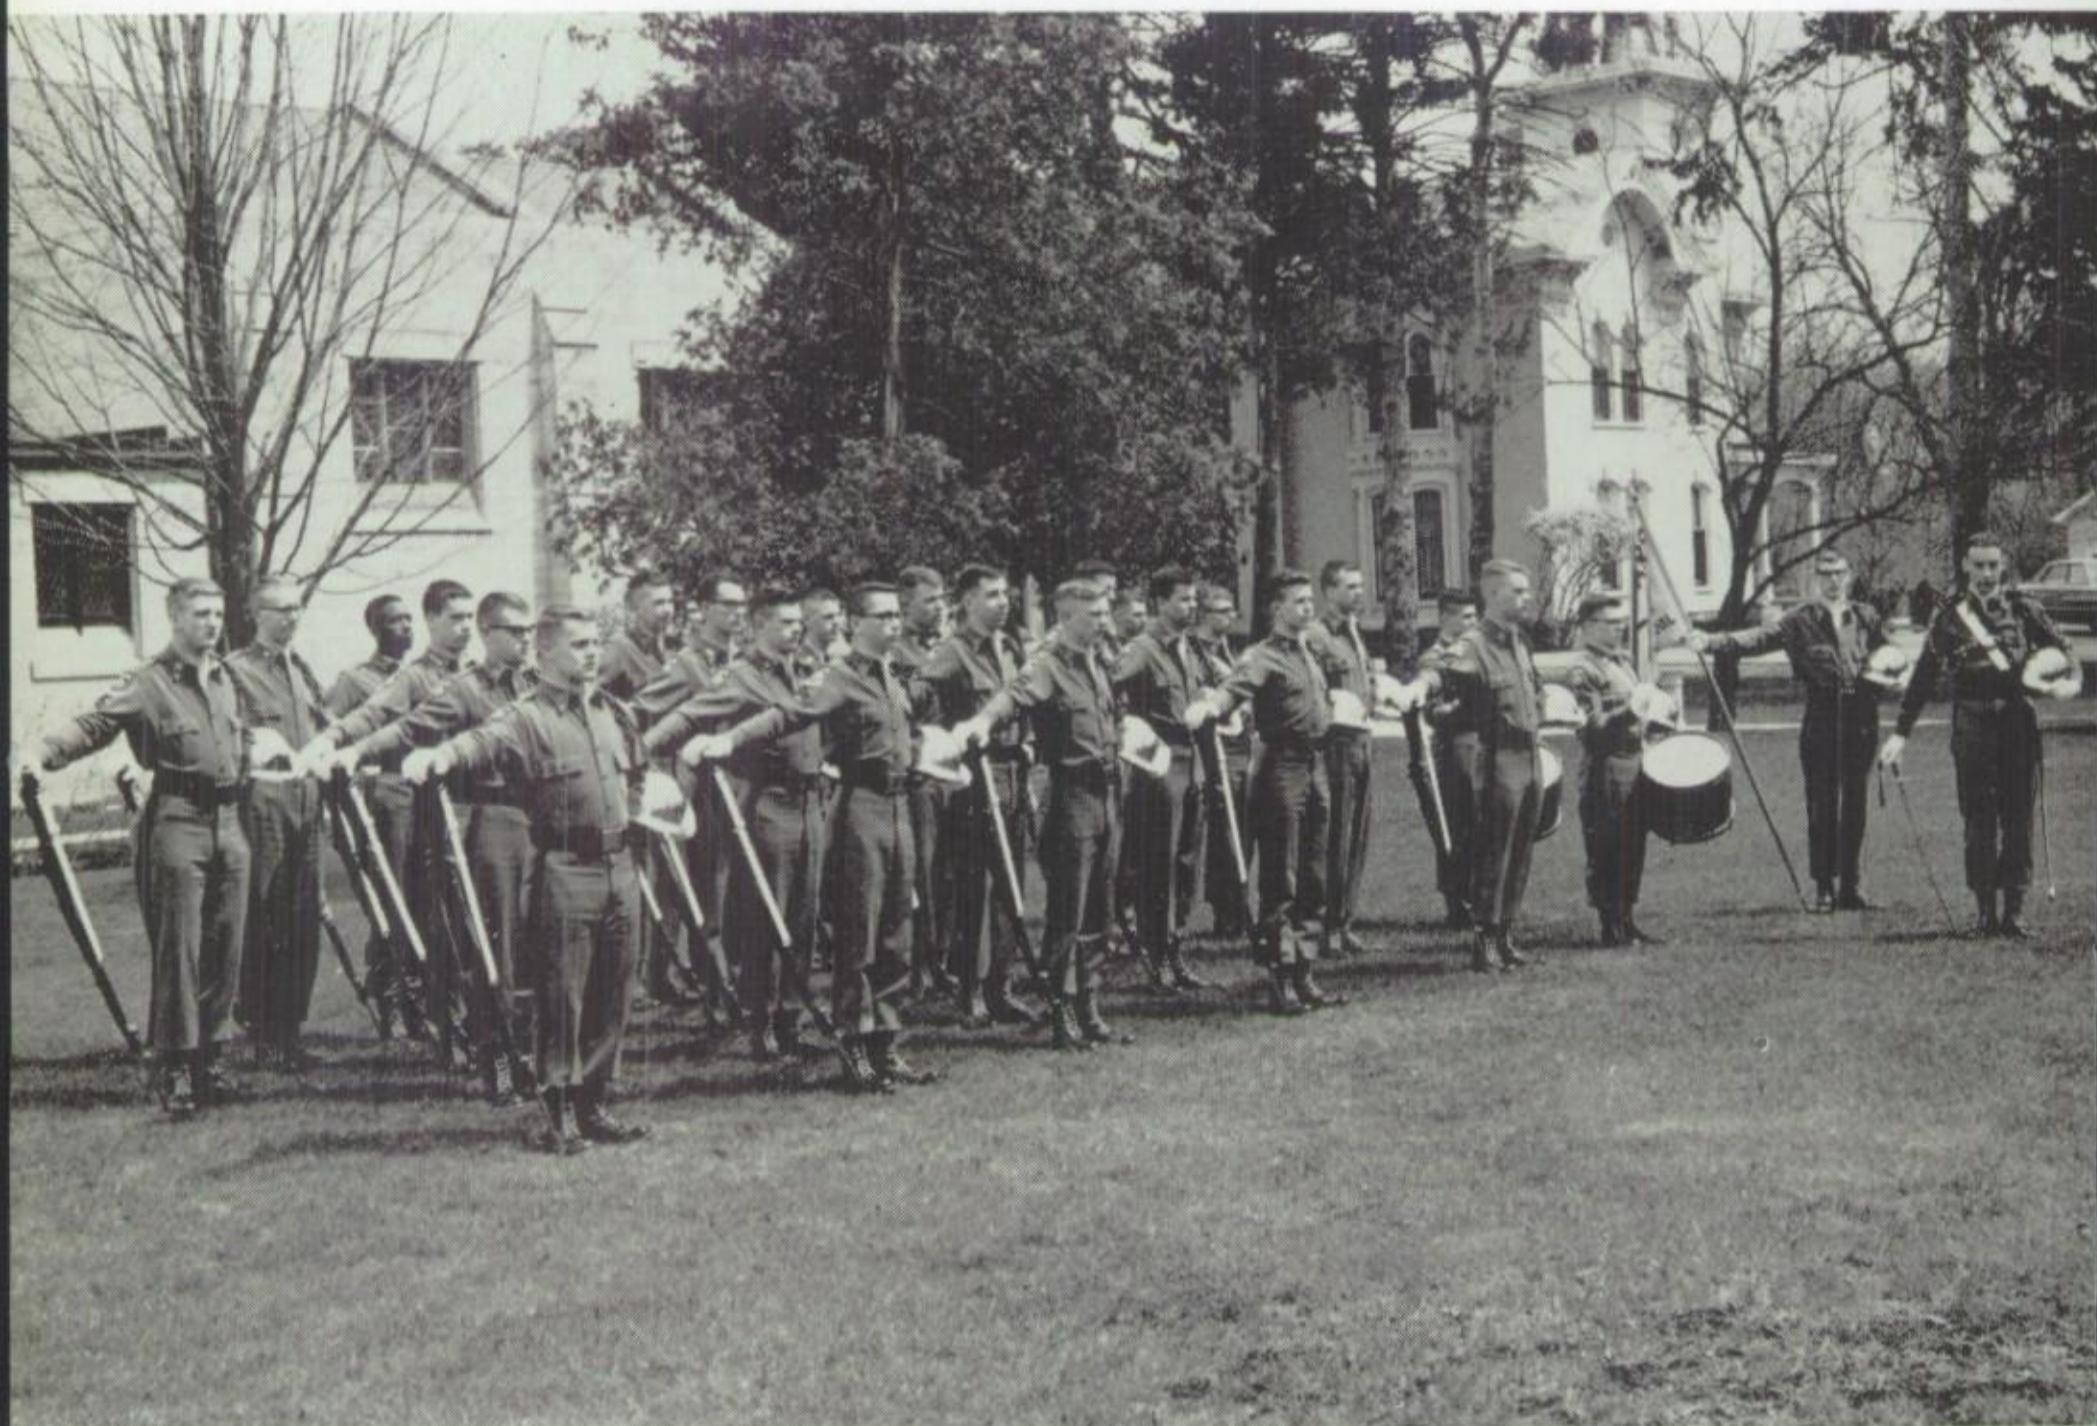

The band's concert season provides the serious music student with an opportunity to develop his ability. Not only does concert work provide training in musical skills, but it also exposes the student to varied works of noted musicians. The results of this winter training were illustrated in two of the band's finest concerts. Directed by Mr. Peter A. Figert, Howe's musicians displayed a remarkable ability to master almost any arrangement from the modern rhythm of John Cocavas's Symphonic Prelude to Gershwin's Rhapsody in Blue.

The fact that the band is the largest in school history seems to indicate an increase in interest as well as talent on campus. It is certain that the members of the band well-deserve the laurels they receive.

Second row: Bachand, Rynd, Turetzky, Seaver, Cummins, Mellon, Jacobs, Krull, Berwick, Dempsey;
Third row: Fairfield, Day, Vine, Decker, Austin, Badgley, Penpraze, Olson, Snyder, Mathis, Jennings, Elbrecht;
Standing: Huenefeld, Ditzler, Pearse, McIntosh, Mastarone, Cook, Gossinger, Williamson, Mayerfeid, Mr. Figert.

The Hussars

Second row: Lovegrove, Howland, Jordan, Abecasis, Wade F., Mardirosian;
Third row: Swartwood, Henry, Bawden, Ostberg, Tubbs, Combs;
Fourth row: Johanson, Washington, Schmidt, Wilson, Reid.

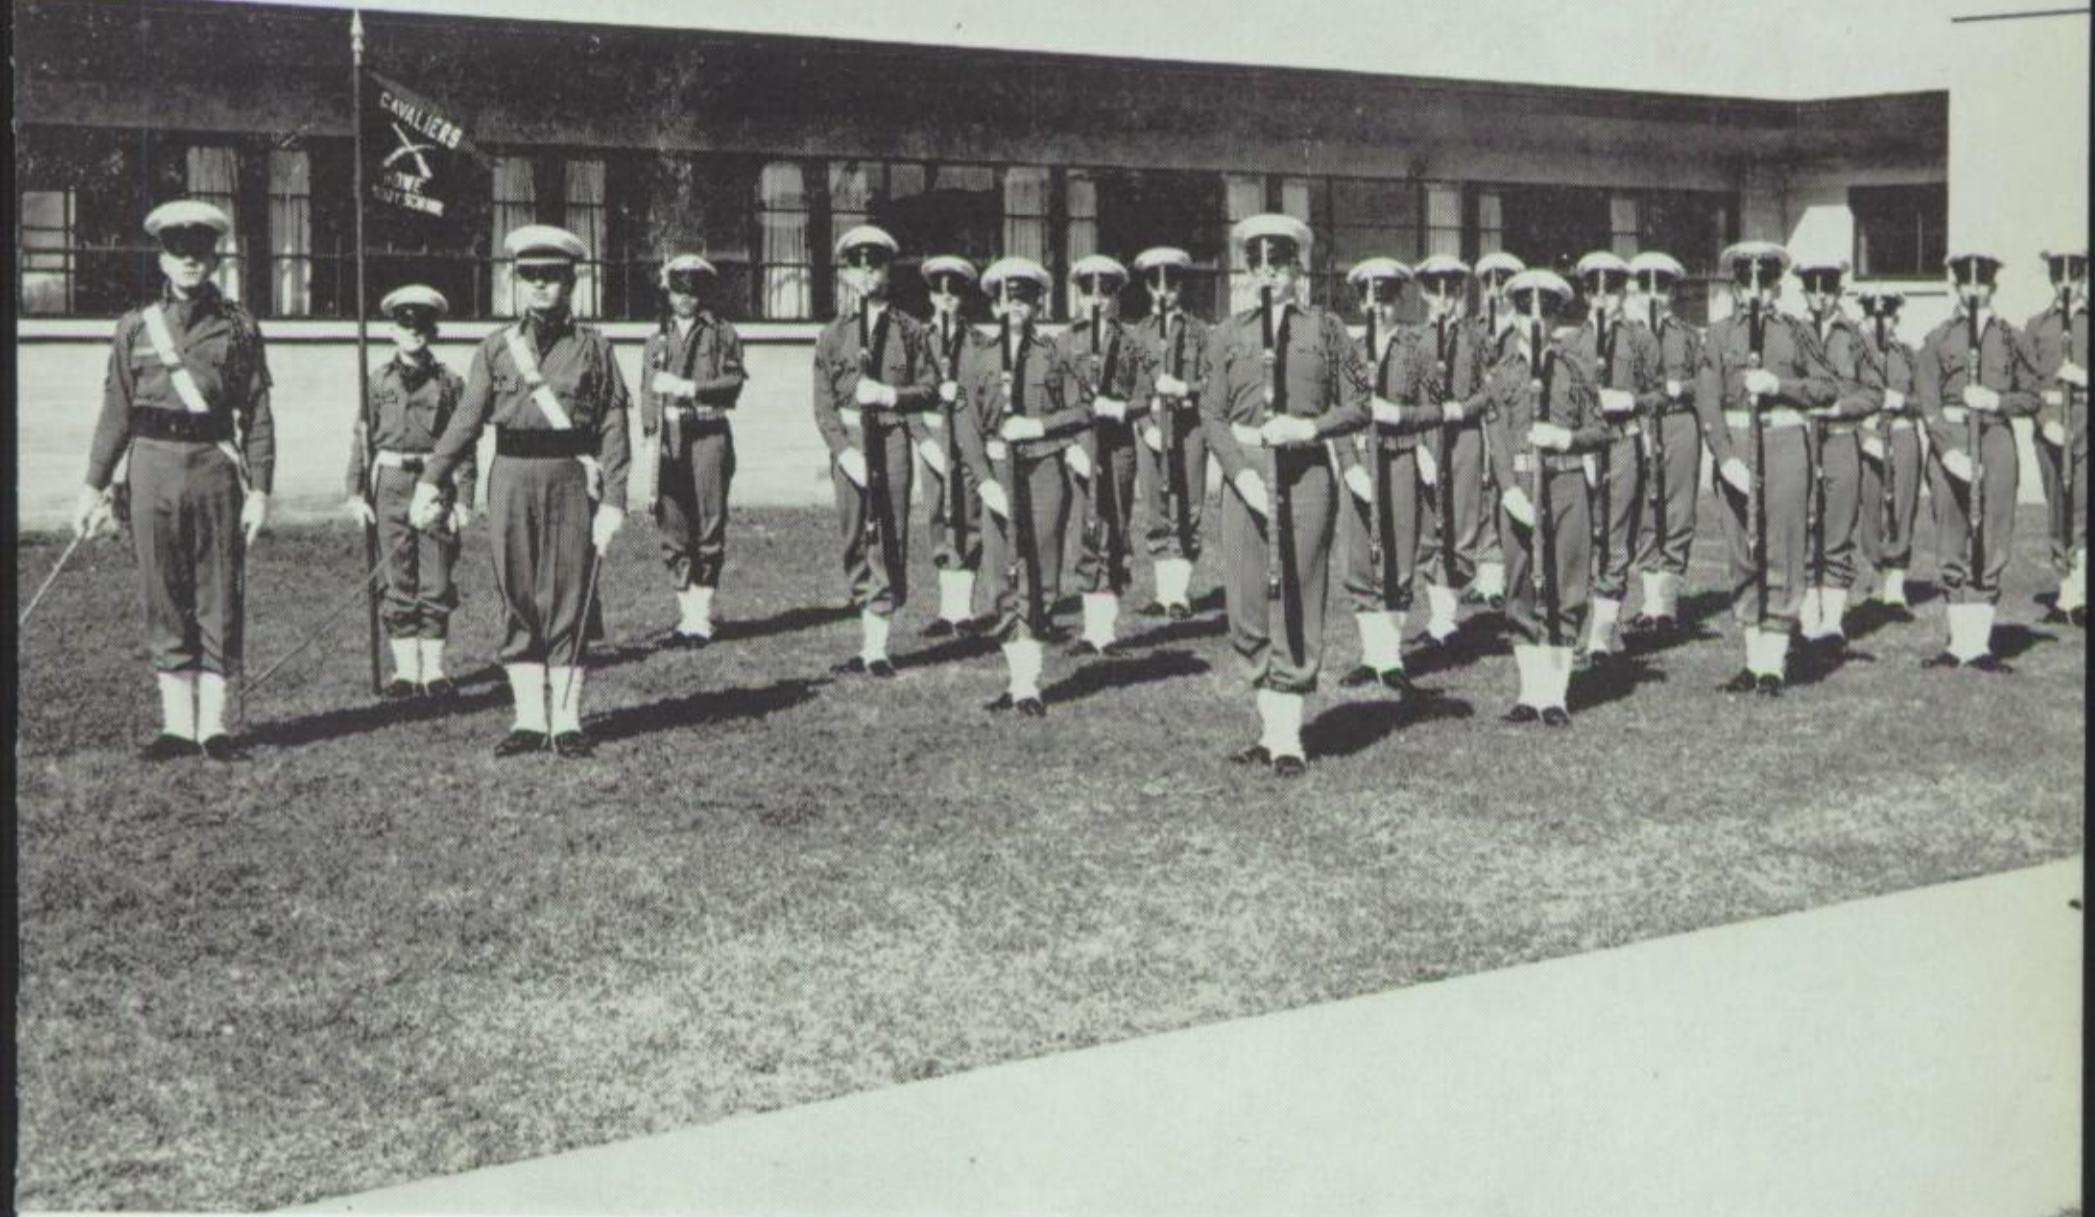

Incorporating drums into their routines, this year's Hussar Drill Team has presented the best of performances. This year's unit performed at Founders' Day, Mother's Day, Commencement, and Government Inspection. Minor performances were made at LaGrange and Howe.

The team once again participated in Sturgis, Michigan, as part of the annual parade featured during Michigan Week.

One of the sharpest things about the Hussars is their uniform. The group wears helmets or berets, a yellow ascot and yellow laces. The chrome bayonets and the white-slunged rifles add a certain flash to the group's appearance.

This year the team was commanded by Herbert Crippen. Frank Wade served as vice-commander. Once again the adviser was Captain Lawrence E. Cowles, tactical officer of Company "B."

The Cavaliers

The Cavaliers have completed their ninth year with their best precision drill team to date. The initial performance took place on 15 April for Government Inspection and also as one unit in the Honor Guard for the Government Inspection Team. Additional performances were held on Mother's Day, Armed Forces Day, and Commencement weekend. For the past two years, the Cavaliers have been awarded the trophy for being the best marching and drill unit in the Michigan Week Sturgis Armed Forces Day Parade.

Under the direction of Major Robert Strawbridge and Cadet Commander Ray E. Gillespie the Cavaliers have developed into an enthusiastic and hard working group eager to be a credit to Howe Military School and to "E" Company. The four Squad Leaders are Cadets Shriner, T.; Ehrlich, Overshiner and Shriner, D.; assistant Cadet Commander. Squad members are Cadets Gianopoulos, McDonald, Condon, Potter, Rosselott, Brilando, Mayerfeld, Biallas, Grumme, R.; Millies, Thornton, Bass, Leeth, Johnson, and Smith, Guidon.

"Blood, Sweat and Stanley Poole," a three act comedy, was presented by the Howe Chapter of the National Thespians in December.

This was one of the finest productions seen on the stage of the Bouton Auditorium in many years. The cast and the director, Mr. Terry Tucker, received the acclaim of an enthusiastic audience.

Fourth row: Mr. Johnson, Gieringer, Young, Poorman, Ranson, Jackson, Yoder, Mr. Piper;

The 1963 Varsity Football team finished the season with an unsuccessful record of one win and six losses. The team showed the lack of experienced players and the lack of depth by some of the errors made throughout the year.

Joe Willmeng was outstanding in the backfield, while the line was anchored by Rich Poll and Bob Best. The backbone for next year's team should be provided by 11 returning lettermen.

Mr. Soper, Coach;
Standing: Koehler, Snyder, Fisher C, Breneman, Tubbs, Brown T, Ross, Richards, Badgley, Root.

The 1963 Cross Country team, hampered by inexperience and injury, posted an unsuccessful dual meet record of three wins and seven losses. The team, under the direction of Coach Soper, lost the first six meets of the season, but finished impressively, winning three of the last four meets.

Jon Dayton was elected Captain and Most Valuable Runner. Jon will be missed next year, as will the other lettermen, Vander Laan, Chmelir and Lovegrove. Reserve runners Ross, Richards and Wright will probably move up to the 1964 Varsity team to join returning letterwinners Breneman, Brown, Koehler and Root.

There is an old aphorism that states: "It matters not whether you win or lose, but how you play the game." This year's team had plenty of hustle and determination, but unfortunately the score was against them several times at the end of the game. At any rate, the Corps of Cadets was very proud to have a team that exemplified the ideals and honor of Howe as well as this year's team did.

Returning lettermen this year will be Pat Quinlan, Gordon Ross, Dan Manwaring, Glen Szladek, Bob Breneman, Bob Finkbeiner, Sandy Stewart, and Scott Livingstone. Good luck, fellas!

Reserve Basketball

Under the coaching of Mr. Fred Johnson, the 1963-1964 reserve team finished with a winning record of 11 victories and 7 defeats. Unlike last year's team, the reserves fought as hard in the closing minutes of the game as they did in the first few minutes.

With thirteen young players, the oncoming year should prove favorable for Howe's Varsity squad.

This year's swimming team had a good season, bowing only to stiff South Bend competition.

The loss of four Senior lettermen will leave plenty of room to be filled next year. A strong nucleus will be built with returning lettermen Snyder, Badgley, Olson, Tubbs, Hoopes, Nelson, Gieringer and Cassidy.

Under the coaching of Mr. Terry Ryser, the 1963-1964 Varsity wrestling team sported a record of three wins, seven losses and one tie. The Varsity schedule was comprised of 11 dual meets and two tournaments. The reserve squad finished the season with three wins and one loss.

Mike Sherrin was elected captain and most valuable wrestler. In addition, Sherrin had the most wins, pins, and takedowns on the team. Virgil Henderson received the Hard-nose trophy for being the most aggressive wrestler.

Second row: Col. Woods, Walter, Richards, Elbrecht, Wieller, Grisdale, Danto, Ward, Mathivet, Chaboudy, Sgt. Glaze;

The 1963-64 rifle team is the most successful group of marksmen in averages and total matches won that Howe has ever had. Theirs is an impressive record. The team traveled to Delafield, Wisconsin, to capture the Saint John's Invitational Tournament and brought home the Midwest Military Academies trophy from Culver. In addition, they placed first in the National Rifle Association Regional match held in Chicago and won the Fifth U.S. Army Championship in the military schools division. In the Fifth Army the group was second over all out of the 150 colleges and military schools participating, losing only to the University of Wyoming. This means that the cadets defeated such schools as University of Michigan, Michigan State, Illinois, Wisconsin, and Iowa.

Out of a total of 42 matches fired during the season, the team lost only six and is distinguished by having revenged all but two defeats. One of these losses was to West Point's varsity team which outshot Howe by nine points. Important wins from schools in this area were claimed from Indiana University, Purdue, Notre Dame, Western Michigan, and Central Michigan.

William T. Muir and Wayne Fitzgerald captained the team. Muir was also the most valuable shooter. Other varsity letter winners were: Harris Howland, Michael Johanson, Thomas Beaman, Robert Thompson, Richard Barnett, Robert Jordan, Phillip Jennings, Ronald Penpraze, and Roger Peirce.

Varsity Baseball

 Second row: Spotts, Stentz, Lhamon, Stackhouse, Quinlan P, Mitchell;
 Standing: Mr. Ryser, Coach; Kuhling, Wilson, Stewart, Young, White, Atwater, Boyer, Mgr.

With five returning lettermen and a new coach, this year's baseball team has an optimistic outlook. Bob Finkbeiner, Tom Curry, "Cy" Young, Bill Ochs and Mike Bouton are all returning from last season's successful team. Along with other promising players, they should provide the punch for this year's hardball team.

Mr. Terry Ryser, a recent graduate of Indiana University, is the coach.

Practices hampered by inclement weather, the 1964 track squad fell prey to a third place in a season-opening triangular meet against Kendallville and Huntertown. After a severe beating in the season opener, Cadet cindermen rallied to soundly defeat Three Oaks as the track season progressed into the second week.

With the loss of the 1963 Senior backbone, the 1964 squad is sprinkled with youth. Fielding only four Seniors, Ken Shelton, Erick Vail, Bob Roos, and Mike Sherrin, many underclassmen are filling vacancies in the Howe line-up.

Although a building season is predicted by Coaches Johnson and Soper, the 1964 track squad displays the ability and the desire that makes a winning season.

Second row: Austin, Mgr.; Jacobs, Wilmot, Topping, Walters, Prout, Jeglum.

Returning lettermen Dan Dibble, Bob Swan, Preben Ostberg, and Bob Breneman should form the nucleus of this year's netmen. They are joined by Szladek, Mossman, Walters, Wise, Topping, Jacobs, Jeglum, and Wilmot to make up what looks to be a promising team.

The squad's new coach, Mr. Philip Cantelon, is striving to build an aggressive team which, with the proper guidance, could be an asset to athletics at Howe. With more matches than there have been in the past, the team should improve as the season progresses.

Going into its fourth year as a Varsity sport, golf has drawn an increasing amount of attention as a team on campus. Last year's team had an 8-3 record and this year's team will put themselves into full gear in hopes of having another fine season.

Returning lettermen Smith, P.G., and Dayton are the top two, but are closely followed by Wade, Penpraze, and Tomlinson. There are also many bright new prospects who are now eligible under the new system of associate membership in the I.H.S.A.A.

Weight Lifting

Standing: Coleman, Keene, Rhine, Quinlan J., Meals, Tietjens, Larsen F.

Surprisingly, weight lifting is probably the most popular campus sport. Earlier this year, it was estimated that about six thousand pounds of weight is distributed about the campus. Much of this weight is in the companies, but much of it is used by Howe's weight lifting course.

According to Mr. Tom Soper, weight lifting coach, Howe's weight lifting course is designed for the physical development of the individual. The coach hopes that the techniques developed in the course will provide future incentive for physical fitness.

On the whole, the weight lifting program has been a campus whirlwind of success. Each year, finer lifters set new school records, and one lifter previously received mention in a national magazine. Because of the lack of inter-school competition, the weight lifters compete within their own weight class.

Intramural Sports

"B" COMPANY INTRAMURAL CHAMPIONS

Each year more and more emphasis is being laid on intramural sports. With the expansion of Howe Military School, a greater number of cadets is pouring into intramural teams. As a result, there is more interest in this type of athletics, and this interest should stimulate the need for sufficient physical ability.

Despite "B" Company's undefeated football season, there was still plenty of fine competition. During the football season, the real battle turned out to be between "C" and "D" Companies. The final game, and probably the most exciting of the season, featured the "C" and "D" gridders. "C" Company came back in the final seconds of play to win the game.

During the basketball season, the story once again was "B" Company winning the championship. A surprising situation arose at the end of the season when tournament time came around. The champions from "B" did not win a single game in the three game tournament. It turned out that Company "C" won the first team game, while "A" and "D" Companies won second and third team honors, respectively. Each company went away happily, after winning trophies.

If Company "B" should happen to win the intramural softball crown, it would retain the trophy awarded to any company winning three intramural crowns in succession.

More talent in intramural sports was viewed this year than in most previous years. Perhaps this may be a harbinger for better Varsity teams in the future.

Lower Football

Auerbach, Potter, Jenkins, Jensen BJ, Mr. Ryser;

Second row: Leventon, Perry, Johnson, Brilando, Frayer, Shriner DD, Ehrlich, Gianopoulos, Morrow;

Third row: Walker JC, Condon, Overshiner, Shriner TW, Dawson, Leininger, Genova, Gillespie, Smith, Melnik;

Fourth row: Grumme RH, Leeth, Mickel, Gray, Kowalk, Jensen PJ, Biallas, Brandt, White, Kapson.

Under the capable direction of Coach Overman and Assistant Coach Ryser the Lower Varsity Football team had another very successful season. Although the players on this team were smaller than in past years, they made up for this in determination and hard work. The team was well-balanced with speed and ability. Good line blocks and excellent down-field blocking made possible several long thrilling runs by alert ball carriers. Genova did a fine job at quarterback. His passing and consistent midde line runs were valuable to the team's offensive effort. Other backfield men to make valuable contributions to the offensive effort were Overshiner, Kowalk, Shriner, D. and Bass. Leininger and Condon held down the end positions and made some spectacular gains as pass receivers. In the line, and not to be forgotten were Shriner, T., Melnik, Morrow, and Jensen, P. Doing good relief work in the line were Johnson, Dawson, and Ehrlich. Brandt and Auerbach were valuable relief men in the backfield.

A total of forty-six Cadets participated in the varsity football program. An intra-squad game was held each week to help the beginners gain experience.

Twenty-two Cadets earned varsity awards, while eighteen reserve certificates were issued. Kapson and Grumme, R., earned manager awards. Genova was presented the trophy for outstanding player of the year.

The Lower School basketball team, hampered with injuries and illness this year, ended the season with three wins and seven losses. The cadets lost the first three games of the season to Lima, Shipshewana and Wolcottville. After Christmas, sparked by the return of Cadets Jensen and Genova who were injured in football, the cadets had a win over Colon by the score of 31 to 16. Cadet Kowalk took scoring honors with 14 points. In the next game the Cadets came from behind to defeat Orland 32 to 28 with Jacobs doing an outstanding job on defense. The cadets played Honeyville on their court and stayed with them until the fourth quarter. In this quarter the cadets made three consecutive errors upon which Honeyville capitalized and won the game 49 to 38. In a return match with Lima the cadets played an uphill battle to tie the game in regulation time. Cadet Kowalk was leading scorer with 16 points. He hit a long shot with 3 seconds remaining and tied the score. In the first overtime Cadet Gillespie hit a pair of free throws to send the game into a second overtime. Lima hit a long shot and won the game 28 to 26.

The best offensive and defensive game of the year was against Colon. The cadets won 50 to 21 with Cadet Kowalk hitting twenty points. The cadets then lost to Orland and Sturgis. In the county tournament the Lower School played Wolcottville, which won the tourney, and had an evening where they could not buy a basket.

The starting five for the cadets was Jacobs and Leininger at forwards, Jensen at center, and Kowalk and Genova at guards with Cadets Bass, Gillespie and Hahn as reserves.

A History of Howe

by BARRY A. NOBLES

In the Eighteenth and Nineteenth Centuries, the village of Howe was a Pottawatomie Indian village, called Mongoquinog or Big Squaw Village, on the banks of the Fawn River. The first white settlers arrived in 1828, and in the year after that a trading post was established. The town grew rapidly. In 1833 John Blake Howe arrived. In that same year, the land was surveyed by the United States government. Streets and a village square were sectioned off, and a courthouse with jail was established. In 1834, the village's name was changed to Lima. A log road was built from Fort Wayne to Lima in 1835, and the Vistula Road, now Indiana 120, was built. It is one of the oldest roads in the Middle West, running from Chicago to Toledo and on to Fort Duquesne, now called Pittsburgh. These roads caused Lima to grow as a vital link between East and West and as an important trade center. All the Indians were removed and shipped west to reservations in 1839. This opened the area to further white settlement. From 1840 to 1860, the town experienced a surge of remarkable economic growth. The village had all the earmarks of a future major city. However, the era following the Civil War saw the development of new roads and rail centers. Lima was by-passed by the progress and remains a peaceful small town.

Born in 1813, John Badlam Howe was the son of a wealthy and influential Boston clergyman. At sixteen, he attended Harvard College. After graduation, he continued his study at Trinity, but in 1833 the spirit of adventure carried him west. He was twenty years old. The road passed through Lima, and in Lima he stayed as the community's first school teacher. In 1834 he was admitted to the bar and became the first lawyer of LaGrange County. He was then invited to help form the Constitution of the State of Indiana, and as an educated man and a leading personality at the convention, he sponsored and saw established a liberal constitution. The famed Dred Scott decision is said to have been based on his contribution to the convention. His feelings on the matter of slavery are also revealed in the knowledge that, during the Civil War, he operated one station of the Underground Railway. In 1840, John Howe was voted into the State House of Representatives. For years he was a leading figure. Acting as a Representative, he dedicated the present LaGrange County Courthouse in 1876. Howe also founded the State Bank of Lima, calling it a "safe, sane, conservative bank." The policy established by Mr. Howe evidently stood the bank in good stead, for during the Great Depression the State Bank of Lima was the only bank in the region to remain in operation.

A religious man, Howe supported the Episcopal Church both spiritually and with large contributions. His death on January 22, 1883, of a stroke, stunned the entire community. All stores closed and were draped in black. His will, in addition to gifts to relatives and his wife, left $10,000 to the Diocese of Indiana for the setting up of a school to train young men for the clergy. From this beginning grew the Howe School of today.

Mrs. Howe and Bishop Knickerbacker established the Howe Grammar School in 1884. The Bishop donated a house, now the home of Father Murphy, and six acres of land which with Mrs. Howe's house and land made up the original campus. In addition to his original gift, Bishop Knickerbacker gave a thirty-acre tract of land on Lake Ninnescah. This is the location of the present Howe Summer Camp. The military system was adopted "because of its peculiar advantages in bringing about the development of boys," and the War Department detailed an officer to direct both the infantry and artillery drill.

John Hazen White became the Bishop of Northern Indiana in 1895, and he appointed the Reverend John H. McKenzie rector. Under Father McKenzie, the school took shape. Numerous gifts permitted the expansion of the campus and the construction of many new buildings. In 1902 Saint James' Chapel was built.

On May 21, 1904, the school lost its true founder, Mrs. Maria Glidden Howe. She died listening to the choir practicing in the nearby chapel. To this day, cadets honor her by singing her favorite hymn and by placing evergreen sprigs on her grave in the crypt, on the anniversary of her death.

The village of Lima changed its name to honor the Howes in 1904. Today the town is Howe, Indiana.

Following Father McKenzie, who died in 1920, was the beloved Father Charles Herbert Young. Father Young was a Phi Beta Kappa graduate of Trinity College. He remained at Howe until 1933 when he was replaced by the Reverend Kenneth Owen Crosby, a Doctor of Divinity from Columbia University. The depression era was a difficult time for the school, and Dr. Crosby left after one year.

Colonel Burrett Beebe Bouton took the reins in 1934 and nursed the hard-hit school through the depression. He is the only superintendent that has not been a clergyman. Originally, Colonel Bouton came to Howe in 1924 as a French instructor, having received a Master's degree from Harvard. He was granted honorary rank of Colonel in the National Guard by the Governor of Indiana. This same year, the Rev. Robert J. Murphy became the first full-time Chaplain of Howe School.

An early graduate of Howe would not recognize the new campus. The modern buildings which the school presently occupy are largely the result of donations from Mr. Ray Wesley Herrick, whose contributions have renovated the campus.

The years of the founding of Howe School were not easy ones, and the depression made it difficult to continue, but Howe has remained as a school devoted to the training of young men in a spiritual environment and her thousands of graduates testify to her success.

When we observe a Howe Military Cadet, the composite picture we seem to see at a glance is actually made up of various separate elements.

Among the more quickly apparent of these elements are: the alertly intelligent air, the confident poise of self-discipline, the erect military bearing, with well-groomed appearance enhanced by the fine "MASTERCUT" uniform. That's why we say, "The Uniform is part of the picture."

We are gratified that our exclusive "MASTERCUT" uniform has been chosen over the years to fit not only the physique but also the personality of the Howe Military Cadet. We're proud of our "MASTERCUT" uniforms, and proud of the splendid young men who wear them.

LOCUST LANE JERSEY FARMS

Have furnished quality milk for Howe School for 40 continuous years. Through all these years we at Locust Lane have endeavored to constantly improve the methods of producing and processing the milk.

We cordially invite you to visit our new dairy barn and see the modern sanitary system used in the production of milk.
